FR. TED COLLETON: A SHORT BIOGRAPHY

There are many heroes and heroines in the struggle to gain protection for all human life especially for the most vulnerable among us whether at the entry or exit stages of our lives. Father Edward (Ted) Colleton has waged the good fight for more than six decades. He has retired from these activist aspects due to age and health, having celebrated his 94th birthday in July of 2007. But he continues to offer prayers for all those affected by abortion and the disrespect for human life.

Father Ted was born in Dublin, Ireland in 1913, the only boy in a family of five children. He joined the Spiritan Order in 1932 and was ordained in 1940. Shortly thereafter he was assigned to serve in Kenya, joyfully laboring there for 30 years until expelled in 1971 over a matter of principle on which he would not yield.

He was reassigned to Canada. Whereas the word abortion did not exist in the language of Kenya, in Canada Father Ted found a modern nation embarking on a dubious experiment to liberalize abortion services. Father Ted joined the pro-life movement to try and educate the public, and especially his beloved young people, about the growing disrespect for human life and the evil and tragedy of abortion for all those involved and harmed by this practice.

Father Ted has devoted more than 35 years to life issues here in Canada as a prolific writer, compelling speaker, gentle teacher, committed activist, and raconteur par excellence. He has spoken to hundreds of thousands of people of all ages, at banquets, annual meetings, youth and retreat groups, and in classrooms. He has been arrested and jailed for his witnessing against the evil of abortion laws or lack thereof.

Most importantly, Father Ted has been a true compassionate and highly principled disciple of the Lord, a friend to people, He deeply believes that prayer is the most important action of human beings in winning the right to life for unborn generations present and to come.

One of Father Ted's favourite quotations is from Edmund Burke: "All evil needs to flourish is that good men do nothing." The many good young people in our society are instead asked to do something.

His life of Christian service, dedication to the needs of others, largesse of spirit, moral convictions, and witnessing to truth are worthy of emulation.

This Scholarship Program sponsored by The Interim and Niagara Region RTL is intended to celebrate his lifetime of service to God's human family and to inspire young people to learn more about the cause so dear to his heart.
